

Let's Talk About Sexuality: Film Screening

Rag Tag

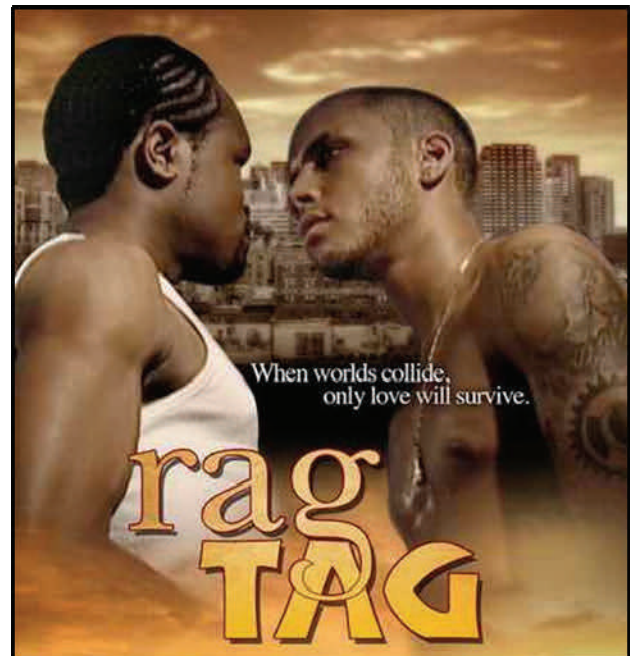

When: Thursday, May 31

FREE

Where: Brookview Middle School
(4505 Jane Street)

Doors open and light refreshments provided at 5:30PM.

Film starts at 6:00PM SHARP.

The screening will be followed by a discussion with the audience moderated by Rev. David Lewis-Peart of the Black Coalition for AIDS Prevention, and Rev. Chiedza Pasipanodya.

Rag Tag tells the story of childhood friends Raymond and Tagbo, "Rag" and "Tag", who are reunited in London as young adults. After all these years, they are still connected. Finally ready to make a commitment to each other, they realize that the obstacles they face may tear them apart forever.

This film is not rated. Viewer discretion is advised.

Presented by the Access & Public Education Committee of the York University - TD Community Engagement Centre. Special thanks to the York University Centre for Human Rights and the Jean Augustine Chair in Education for their generous support.